And if Jesus himself should be our leader, We shall walk through the valley in peace.*

OLD HUNDREDTH

INVITATION TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)

Lord Jesus, we thank You for Your generous invitation to the great banquet of Your Kingdom. You call us to feast on Your grace, yet we confess that we often ignore Your voice. We get distracted by our daily work, our worries, and our own selfish pursuits, treating Your holy call as if it does not matter.

A brief silence for individual confession is kept

ASSURANCE OF PARDON (responsive)

Hear the good news: In Christ, the king's table is ready, and his invitation is for you. You do not need to clean up your life, prove your worth, or earn your place before coming to God. Through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, your sins are forgiven, and you are clothed in His righteousness. Come as you are, and rejoice in His eternal welcome.

Thanks be to God.

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (unison)

The Confession of 1967

God's sovereign love is a mystery beyond the reach of the human mind. Human thought ascribes to God superlatives of power, wisdom, and goodness. But God reveals divine love in Jesus Christ by showing power in the form of a servant, wisdom in the folly of the cross, and goodness in receiving sinful men and women. The power of God's love in Christ to transform the world discloses that the Redeemer is the Lord and Creator who made all things to serve the purpose of God's love.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

THE LORD'S PRAYER (unison)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

OFFERING OF OUR GIFTS

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

"Psalm 23"

Paul Basler

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

*DOXOLOGY

OLD HUNDREDTH

*Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.*

(some substitute "God" for "Him")

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING (responsive)

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

God of all blessings, source of all life, giver of all grace, we thank You for the mystery of creation and for our many blessings. Today, we thank You for the gift of music. We thank You for our church musicians and vocalists who share their gifts, as well as our Sacred Academy of Music, and for all those who make our music programs a blessing.

We give You thanks, loving God, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever. Amen.

Caregivers Group to meet Thursday, October 15, 2026 at 1:00 p.m. in Lewis Hall Parlor. Challenges, triumphs, things we're unsure of, things we're all too sure of—we talk, we care. “You gave me room when I was in distress.” Psalm 4:1b

Stewardship: Each fall, our church sets aside time to reflect prayerfully on stewardship and the many ways God has blessed our lives. This year, we are guided by the words of Jesus in Matthew 6:21: “For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.” Stewardship is about more than meeting a budget. It is an expression of gratitude and an opportunity to consider what we value, where we place our trust, and how we can use what God has given us to participate in Christ's work through Memorial Presbyterian Church. The Stewardship Committee has mailed packets containing a brochure, pledge card, and additional information about this year's campaign. We invite you to read these materials, prayerfully consider your financial commitment for 2027, and bring your completed pledge card to church on Stewardship Commitment Sunday, October 18. If you are unable to bring your pledge card that Sunday, you may mail it to the church or make your pledge online. Thanks, ahead of time, for your commitments to our common ministry.

Fall Festival Volunteers Needed! Our Memorial Presbyterian Day School Fall Festival is coming up on Sunday, October 18, from 12:00-2:00 and we need volunteers to help make this special event a success! Volunteers are needed from 11:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. to help with games, activities, food, and other event needs. We would love to have you join us! For more information or to volunteer, please contact Beth Richards at 904-669-1346 or brichards@memorialpcusa.org. Thank you for helping us make this a fun and memorable day for our children and families!

WATER - A Three-Part Sermon Series: Water runs through the story of biblical faith—from beginning to end. Water can symbolize life and death, longing and abundance, danger and grace. Over three Sundays in November, we'll explore how the image of water speaks to our deepest human experiences and to God's presence with us through them all. Join us as we consider the waters that shape us and sustain us.

Part II Earth Care Congregation - Caring for God's Creation: Recycling is often one of the first and simplest ways that congregations support Creation care. Beginning October 18th we will discontinue offering paper coffee cups. This includes Sunday Cafe, Wednesday FEAST, and other church gatherings where coffee might be served. All are welcome to bring a reusable mug or water bottle. You may wish to share a bulletin with a family member or a friend. Dedicated recycling containers are at sanctuary exits for worship bulletins.

Congregational Nominating Committee: The Congregational Nominating Committee asks for your suggestions for church members who may be considered for nomination as Elders, Deacons and Trustees for the Class of 2030. Please prayerfully reflect on members who are active in the life of the church and possess the leadership qualities for officer positions. You may submit your recommendations using the nomination forms that are available at the sanctuary exits. You may also email your suggestions to sheilabrown@cpa.com. We are grateful for your thoughtful consideration.

Trunk or Treat: An Evening for All Ages: Join us on Sunday, October 25th, from 5:00 to 6:00 p.m. for an evening of Halloween fun and fellowship on Sevilla Street, which will be closed to traffic during the event. Adults of all ages, we would love your help welcoming the children! Bring candy, stickers, or other treats to hand out, and enjoy visiting with families from our church, PDS, St. Francis House, and the Homeless Coalition. Bring a lawn chair and come as you are, or dress up and decorate your vehicle if you'd like. You do not need a decorated car to take part! Feel free to invite neighbors and friends. Pizza will be provided for everyone. Please contact Anne Reid Broos with any questions.

Make Room for Advent: This Advent, don't just celebrate the season—experience it in community. Join an Advent Small Group for meaningful conversation, deeper connection, and a chance to prepare our hearts for Christmas together. Sign up for a group at the welcome table in Lewis Hall! Advent starts November 29th and we will have a zoom option!

Stephen Ministry: Stephen Ministers are available to be with you to help sustain your spiritual needs in your time of affliction as the Lord restores you to wholeness. For more information on receiving care please email: stephenministry@memorialpcusa.org.

“I give to MPC because of the incredible community that the church has built. I have been volunteering with the Youth for several years and it is amazing to see the number of families who participate. I love being part of a church community that is welcoming and friendly. No matter what is going on in my life, I know that there is a group of people here who care about me and my family. MPC truly loves its members and our local community. Our outreach committee touches so many programs and people across St. Augustine. We frequently talk of loving our neighbors and MPC embodies that commandment through its many missions. I believe that in order to live in a welcoming village, you need to be a villager. I do that by contributing to MPC through financial and time offerings.” – Marsha Ward
