GATHERING

TOLLING OF THE HOUR

The prelude marks a time of preparation for worship. Please be considerate of those who seek to use this time for prayer and reflection through the gift of music.

PRELUDE "Prière à Notre-Dame" from Suite Gothique, Op. 25 Léon Boëllmann

INTROIT "God So Loved the World" John Goss

*God so loved the world, that He gave His only-begotten Son,
That whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.
For God sent not His son into the world to condemn the world;
But that the world, through Him, might be saved.*

GREETING (responsive)

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Let us take a moment of silence to center ourselves on God.

CALL TO WORSHIP (responsive)

Psalm 90, adapted

Lord, You have been our home forever and forever.

Before the mountains were formed, before the earth was formed,
From everlasting to everlasting, You are God.

Satisfy us in the morning with Your love,
So that we may rejoice and be glad.

UNSER HERRSCHER

INVITATION TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (unison)

Sovereign God, we confess that we have not turned away from sin. We pay too much attention to our own needs and wants. We hold grudges and we are reluctant to give sacrificially. Show us Your way of love, so that we may be one with Your Spirit, through Jesus Christ, Redeemer of the world. Amen.

A brief silence for individual confession is kept

ASSURANCE OF PARDON (responsive)

Psalm 103:8,10,12

The LORD is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger, abounding in love. The Lord does not treat us as our sins deserve or repay us according to our wrongs. As far as the east is from the west, so far has the Lord removed our transgressions from us.

Amen.

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (unison)

PCUSA, Brief Statement of Faith, Excerpt

In life and in death we belong to God. Through the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, we trust in the one triune God, the Holy One of Israel, whom alone we worship and serve. We trust in Jesus Christ, fully human, fully God. Jesus proclaimed the reign of God: preaching good news to the poor and release to the captives, teaching by word and deed and blessing the children, healing the sick and binding up the brokenhearted, eating with outcasts, forgiving sinners, and calling all to repent and believe the gospel. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

THE LORD'S PRAYER (unison)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name, Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

OFFERING OF OUR GIFTS

Today is Stewardship Commitment Sunday at Memorial Presbyterian Church. Each fall, our church sets aside time to reflect prayerfully on stewardship and the many ways God has blessed our lives. This year, we are guided by the words of Jesus in Matthew 6:21: "For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also." Stewardship is about more than meeting a budget. It is an expression of gratitude and an opportunity to consider what we value, where we place our trust, and how we can use what God has given us to participate in Christ's work through Memorial Presbyterian Church. We invite you to bring your completed pledge card up during today's services. If you are unable to bring your pledge card today, you may mail it to the church or make your pledge online. Thanks, ahead of time, for your commitments to our common ministry. The sunflower stems are being given out to all families in grateful appreciation for the awesome generosity of MPC's members and friends by the Stewardship Ministry.

WATER - A Three-Part Sermon Series: Water runs through the story of biblical faith—from beginning to end. Water can symbolize life and death, longing and abundance, danger and grace. Over three Sundays in November, we'll explore how the image of water speaks to our deepest human experiences and to God's presence with us through them all. Join us as we consider the waters that shape us and sustain us.

Part III Earth Care Congregation - Caring for God's Creation: Look for the blue recycling containers with the Earth Care Congregation logo. You may see blue recycling containers in Lewis Hall, in hallways, parlors, or classrooms. In the City of St. Augustine you may recycle paper towels, napkins, newspaper, magazines, office paper, junk mail, cardboard; aluminum, tin, and steel cans; plastic bottles and jugs; milk and juice cartons.

Help Us Be the Face of Hospitality at Memorial: A warm smile. A friendly hello. A helping hand. Sometimes the simplest gestures are the ones that make someone feel truly welcome and that's what our ushers have the opportunity to do every Sunday. We are looking for additional volunteers to join our usher teams for the 8:30 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. worship services. Whether you've been part of Memorial for many years or are newer to our church family, this is a wonderful and meaningful way to serve. No experience is necessary! We'll provide training so you'll feel comfortable and confident in the role. More than anything, we're looking for people who enjoy welcoming others and helping create the spirit of warmth and hospitality that makes Memorial such a special place. To learn more or volunteer, please contact Susan Phillips at 828-545-4093 or sgphillips1234@gmail.com. Come help us make sure everyone who walks through our doors knows they are welcome.

Make Room for Advent: This Advent, don't just celebrate the season—experience it in community. Join an Advent Small Group for meaningful conversation, deeper connection, and a chance to prepare our hearts for Christmas together. Sign up for a group at the welcome table in Lewis Hall! Advent starts November 29th and we will have a zoom option!

Join the BAND! Please consider joining MPC's Praise Band, Catalyst. Contact Kris Kelly, krissings@yahoo.com, 904-826-5272.

Christmas 4 Kids: Families living in poverty cannot afford new clothes and toys for their children at Christmas. This is true for many children and families at South Woods Elementary School. In celebration of the season of gratitude and giving, we ask you once again to show your generosity by sponsoring a child in need this Christmas. On Sunday, November 1st, Christmas 4 Kids volunteers will be outside all of the church exits with children's wish lists. We hope you will find it in your hearts to sponsor a child and give what you are able.

Volunteer Pianists Needed: Westminster St. Augustine (your local Presbyterian-related retirement community) is in need of two volunteer pianists who can sight-read music, for two different ministry functions on our retirement community campus:

1. Accompanist for our Holiday Chorus practices in Chapel (6 rehearsals, 3:00 p.m. Wednesdays in November and December. Please contact Kori Montague if interested. 904-201-7063, kmontague@wservices.org.

Al-Anon at MPC: Tuesdays 10:00 a.m. and Saturdays 9:30 a.m. in Room 205 of Lewis Hall. You will find love, understanding, and a lot of hope from the Al-Anon family groups, where we share our experience, strength and hope. This helps us focus on ourselves and our recovery from the effects of the disease of alcoholism. It's a safe place, the right place to be. Your anonymity is protected at all times.

“For Rose Marie and I, it’s important to pledge because, beyond, God’s grace, that is the lifeblood of the church. Pledging also shows where our heart lies. It has been said that we can tell where a person’s priorities lie by examining their checkbook.

As someone who’s been reading and studying the Bible for a very long time, it’s interesting to me that many of Jesus’ parables talk about wealth. No, He wasn’t looking for a job, and He showed little interest in material things. He preached about the riches of the Spirit. His interest was in how the pursuit of money affects our character. He also was keenly aware of our basic needs.

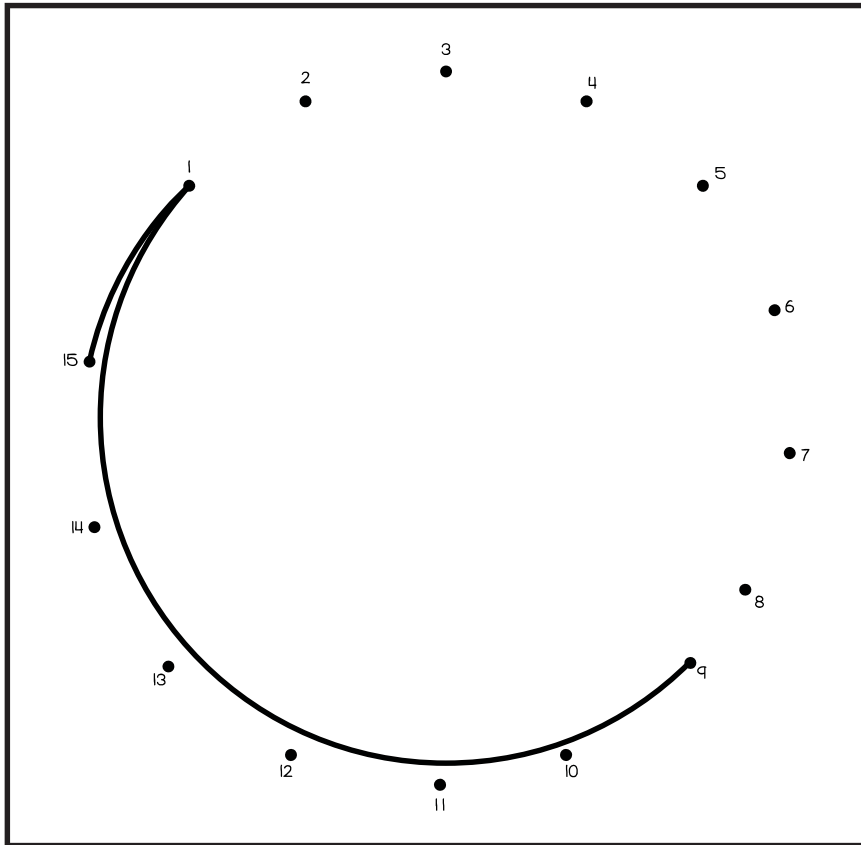

Our church cannot survive if we don’t feed her. We need all the messages about love we can muster up. For Rose Marie and I, searching our hearts for what is most important is essential. For us, supporting our church through pledging is part of how we follow Jesus.” - Lew and Rose Marie Norris

In Matthew 22, the Pharisees try to challenge and trick Jesus with their questions about taxes. Jesus responds with great wisdom, using a coin to illustrate his point. Connect the dots to form a coin. Inside the coin, write or draw a question you have for Jesus.
